Writ Petitions Nos. 41479/1993, 17740/1994,
and 16468 to 16472/95.

O R D E R

CHIEF JUSTICE:

We have heard learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the records.

2. The pleas raised in these writ petitions and the prayers made are identical as were allowed and issued in various other writ petitions and appeals, already disposed of by this court.

3. It is stated<sup>at</sup>/the Bar that these writ petitions may also be disposed of in terms of the earlier orders passed.

4. Learned Counsel appearing for the parties have specifically referred to the Judgment of this Court in STATE OF KARNATAKA Vs CITIZEN OF INDIA (I.L.R. 1997 KARNATAKA 2934) and Writ Appeals Nos. 793-803/1996 decided on 12th June 1996<sup>and</sup>/Writ Petitions Nos. 22217/96 and connected matters, decided on 31-7-1997.

5. Keeping in view of the facts and circumstances of the case the earlier judgment of this court and the statements made at the Bar, these writ petitions are also disposed of with the following observations and directions:

- i) That the petitioners-institutions and their students are given liberty to file representations for regularisation of their admissions within a period of two weeks from today.
- ii) If such representations are filed before the appropriate authority within two weeks, the same shall be examined and considered by the Medical Council of India who shall make appropriate recommendation to the Central Govt. within a period of four weeks from the date of such representation, keeping in view of the earlier Judgment referred to herein above.
- iii) On receipt of the recommendation of the Medical Council, if made, the Central Govt. shall consider the cases of the concerned students on merits within a further period of four weeks.

- iv) Until the disposal of the prayer by way of applications/representations filed within the time fixed herein-above, such of the students who are already pursuing their studies shall be allowed to continue their studies.
- v) The benefit of these directions shall not be available to the institutions or students who do not file applications/representations within a period of two weeks from today.
- vi) This order would not in any way confer any additional right upon the petitioners and they shall not be entitled to any further benefits on the ground of equity alone.
- vii) No costs.
